

Randal and Dorothea Aldred, missionaries to Guyana, informed me of little Hanif Daniels, only three months old, who has a rare congenital skin disease. He needs extensive treatment and medication to treat this condition both internally and externally. His family is Amerindian and has no means to pay for the needed medical care. The doctors are concerned about his vision and necessary skin grafts.

