

Josue David, from the Dominican Republic, needs surgery on his crossed eye. With the proper medical care he will regain self-confidence and worth by learning to read with the children at school.

